

Dear Choir Parents,

We hope you all had a good week and enjoyed an extra hour of sleep this weekend. Remember - no school this Tues. 11/6 for election day.

FAST FACTS:

- Coupon Book Money is past due. There are still a couple dozen students who have not turned in their Coupon book money ($250). Please send in your $250 check and return all unsold books to Anita Adams in the Choir office. For those students who have not yet sold all their books, Perry Calisi will be coordinating the students to sell books at local retailers. Stay tuned for a call from Perry if you have not sold all 10 books.
- Andy Haines is in town this week for choreography for our December holiday show. See below for the rehearsal schedule this week.
- Pop up choir benefit dinner at the Tompkins Center at Windmill Pointe is this Friday, November 9th. We only have 8 tickets left if you can join us or would like to bring a friend. CLICK HERE for tickets. You'll enjoy a delicious 4-course meal, cash bar, entertainment by Richard Wolf and student performers and proceeds are donated back to the choir! Doors open at 7pm. Dinner served at 7:30pm. If you've purchased a ticket, your name will be at the door, no printed paper ticket required for entry.

- Pop up dinner student servers: We still need a few more student servers to help make this night a success! (They get to keep their tips $$$.) CLICK HERE for the student server sign up.
- Solo & Ensemble is this Saturday November 10th. GPS is hosting the Michigan Musical Theater Solo & Ensemble competition. There will be schools and students from all over the greater Detroit area, music educators, musicians and many South students participating in the event. We are honored to host this competition and look forward to sharing our beautiful school and gracious volunteers with all those attending. We need several parent and student ambassadors to help welcome and guide our guests around the facility, sell refreshments and provide support to the judges. CLICK HERE to help.
- Choir caroling is December 7th and 8th. CLICK HERE to learn more. Share this link and encourage friends, neighbors and coworkers to book a caroling group at their holiday party this season! Caroling order form is on the website link. Contact Kim and Dan Tripp at choircaroling@gmail.com to book a caroling group.
