

Dear Choir Parents,

Congratulations to all the singers, tappers, directors and musicians on another fantastic South choir show! The sold out performance, Sounds of the Season, was the perfect way to get us all into the holiday spirit! Thank you students and directors!

We hope you all had a chance to see and hear one of our caroling groups this weekend. The groups were great ambassadors of South choir attending parties and local restaurants to sing Christmas carols, spread holiday cheer and earn a little money for their choir program. Thank you to all our parent drivers who chaperoned and safely transported the groups to each of their events. The students could not do it without the incredible parents who give their time (and hopefully had fun too)!

We also want to say thank you to Andrew Fleming's Family and our Choir student officers, John O'Dell, Mia Turco, and Maya Petropoulos, for organizing a fun holiday party for the choir students. With over 50 kids in attendance, the officers organized games, food and cookie decorating and ensured that each student felt welcome and part of the group. Watching the kids having so much fun together was another great reminder of why we all put so much effort into supporting this program!

We also want to recognize our choir students, Chris Pratt and Richard Wolf for their festive performance at the Mother's Tea on Wednesday. Again our students spread holiday cheer with their talent and joy to many in our community. Thank you students and directors for all your hard work this week.

Whew! After a crazy busy choir week, there is nothing on the calendar for 7 whole days! Looking to next week, Andy Haines will be in town for a few competition-preparation rehearsals. For this week... no choir activities!

Thank you for all you do to support your student's choir program! Have a wonderful week.

With Warmest Regards,

Megan and Freeman Gunnell
