

Andy Haines has been a free-lance Choreographer for the past 33 years. After finishing a BA from Ohio State University, he began a career as a performer and choreographer in musical theater productions as well as choreographing Miss America State Pageants. Andy has been quite active on the show choir circuit for a number of years. Center Grove High School "CG Sound System," Findlay High School "First Edition," Grosse Pointe South High School "Pointe Singers," are groups currently performing his choreography. These groups have all been consistent finalists in top competitions around the country, and at one time or another, have been named Grand Champions of Showstoppers National and International Competitions eight times in the past nine years.
